GEORGE CALDWELL,

The general opinion is that the New York yesterday at 1374. show here last week was the best thing of the kind ever seen here.

The Woodsfieldians had a big "doebake" last Tuesday. It was a fine the residence of the bride's father, by the success. Tom Morris carried off the Rev. T. A. Grove, Mr. James Driggs and Miss Lucetta Read, both of Woodsfield, Ohio. ho nors for the largest amount of game.

The quiet and good order which prevailed here on the day of the show, was a credit to the place and people.

BREVETED FOR GALLANTRY .- The Secretary of War has breveted Lt. Col. of May, 1865, by John Owens, Esq., Mr. John Henry R. West, of the 62d O. V. I., as L. Gillespie and Miss Harriett C. Jeffres, all of Secretary of War has breveted Lt. Col. Colonel, for gallant conduct at the storm ing of Fort Gregg, to date from the 2d day of April last.

This honor was unsolicited, and was based upon the favorable reports made of him by his commanding officers.

SUICIDE.-We learn that Norris Lupton, who lived near the line between this County and Belmont, committed suicid on the 7th just. He left his house in the morning, and was found in the afternoon back of his fields, hanging by the neck dead. His mind was at times disordered He leaves a family, we know not of what avallie shows a

SWINDLER'S ABOUT .- A few days since two men made their appearance in the neighborhood of Beallsville, one of then pretending to be a wool buyer. They went to the house of William Fraley and succeeded in borrowing from him $165 giving in pledge what they claimed was a very valuable gold watch, which the would redeem in a few days. In the same way they obtained $200 from Philip Sha fer. Of course the watches are compar atively worthless and will never be re leemed water a validor out on

Liberty is one of the dearest blessings which our fathers have handed down to us It was purchased by the blood of many a rev olutionary hero; has been guarded by a Washington, a Jefferson, a Clay and a Webster. But dearer still to the hearts of the people is that world renowned remedy known as Coe's Cough Balsam. It cures like magic the most violent attacks of Croup, and is indispensable in every family of children. A LARGE AND WELL SELUTED Colds, sudden coughs, sore throat, hoarse ness, and inflamed lungs are instantly and surely cured by its timely use. No cough winture has ever been known to equal it, which accounts for its great popularity with all classes. The young and old—the rich and poor—physicians, druggists—and all who have ever tasted it speak in the highest terms of its merits. We say to our readers, buy it and try it. modern improvement, but the ability of a great nation to provide for a great debt, and to make it the most convenient and best form of personal property; is a modern wonder. The debt of Great Britain was begun by raising a million sterling by loan in 1692, and when her great contest with Louis KtV. was terminated, the debt had reached fifty mil-Linen & Paper Collars, Neckties, terminated, the deet had reached any millions. Many statesmen and economists were then alarmed at the great burden which had been imposed upon the industry of the country, but when the war of the Austrian succession had swelled this amount to eighty millions, Macaulay says that historians and orators pronounced the case to be desperate. But when war again broke out, and the na But when war again broke out, and the national debt was rapidly carried up to end hundred and forty millions, men of theory and business both pronounced that the fatal day had certainly arrived. David Hume said that, although, by taking its energies to the utmost, the country might possibly live through it, the experiment must have be repeated,—even a small increase might be fatal. Granville said the matching might be NOTIONS COMPLETE. He is selling at greatly reduced prices, and defles competition. All he asks is a fair fatal: Granville said the nation must state under it unless some portion of the load with borne by the American Colonies; and the attempt to impose this load produced the war of the revolution, and, instead of biantismuse, added another hundred millions to the burden. Again, says Macaulay, was England given over; but again she was more prosperous than ever before. But when at the close of her Napoleonic wars in 1816, this debt had been swelled up to the enormous sum of over eight hundred millions sterling, or fear thousand three hundred million dollars, or nearly one half the entire property of the fatal: Granville said the nation in S.
